Would it be correct for bot

Answer—No, only your name should appear on the wedding invitation. As long as either of your parents is living, it is their right to issue the invitation; consequently, it would not be at all correct to include your grandmother's name.

The only exception would be ceremony is to be held at her home. That one, incidentally, is yours. If you, home with your mother for many years then courtesy her name should be written.

Write plainly your name, age and style number. Be sure to size. Address order to The Boston Bulletin, Pattern Department, Edmonton, Alberta.

Commodity prices continued their decline yesterday. Chicago wheat just a further 2 cents and Winnipeg a further 1/4 to 1/2, and is now below the government contract price of 70 cents at Fort William. Canada is moving a very large barrel and is having some difficulty in finding sufficient elevator space. The Alberta crop will probably be ready to play on the foreign market what goes to the Pacific coast probably will be shipped to ship wheat from Vancouver just now is not as good. The eastern crop, however, filling up some of the central countries which take a large part of the wheat. In fact, leading Canadian mills at Baltimore intended to have a large quantity of wheat to ship to the Pacific coast, but the wheat is not as good as the eastern crop. The price is wanted out to be about 70 cents. The wheat is not as good as the eastern crop. The price is wanted out to be about 70 cents. The wheat is not as good as the eastern crop. The price is wanted out to be about 70 cents.

Kiwanis Children's Aid Society Stages Apple Day Sale on Saturday

Children of Home Are Given Support Through Campaign

An army of good natured, laughing clowns will appear on Edmonton streets Saturday, hawking and vending huge, rosy apples which are shipped here especially for Kiwanis Apple Day. Saturday will be the day of opportunity for every citizen, not only to buy the finest fruit product of the Okanagan Valley, but to aid the children who are wards of the Kiwanis Children's Home.

President of the Kiwanis Club, which is sponsoring the annual Apple Day campaign to raise funds for support of the Kiwanis Children's Home.

COURT QUASHES SEVEN COUNTS OF CONSPIRACY

Seven counts of "conspiracy in fraud of the public and to injure the public" brought against George M. Kusik, Edmonton, under the common law were ordered quashed by Mr. Justice A. F. Ewing in supreme court Monday following representations by H. A. Mackie, K.C., counsel for the accused. Kusik still faces 15 counts under different sections of the criminal code for conspiracy to defraud by obtaining naturalization papers for different persons and also for counselling to commit perjury.

Thursday afternoon Mr. Mackie submitted that the accused could not be charged both under the criminal code and the common law with offences arising out of the same set of facts. The court held with this submission. Crown Prosecutor J. W. McLaughlin, K.C., submitted that the offences charged under the common law were separate and distinct from those under the criminal code.

First witness in the case was Konstantine Kulk, Edmonton, who is facing a charge of perjury resulting for statements made on his application for recommendation for naturalization.

He told the court of dealing with Kusik to obtain his citizenship papers. Kusik, he said, had told him that he had altered the information in the application for naturalization and that when he went before the judge for approval he was to say he had worked at St. Michael, and also state he had not been on relief. The hearing is proceeding.

Archie Bourke, North Trapper, Is Found Dead

Death of Archie Bourke, northern trapper, whose body was discovered in an abandoned skiff on the Athabasca river about 50 miles north of Fort McMurray, is being investigated by R.C.M.P. officials according to word received here. Report of Bourke's death was brought to Fort McMurray by the crew of a Hudson's Bay company boat, who reported that the body had been found by another trapper, Sam Peterson.

Cause of Bourke's death will not be known until Constable T. M. Paul, McMurray detachment R. C. M. P., returns from a trip to investigate. He is not expected back until next week. Bourke is believed to have been on route from Fort McMurray to McMurray with his brother, who was travelling in another skiff. Whereabouts of Bourke's brother is not known.

Truck-Carrying Aerial Canoe

VICTORIA, Sept. 28.—The British Columbia government has ordered tenders for the first truck-carrying aerial railway across the Fraser valley.

The railway, to be built at North Bend, B.C., will have a travelling way 26 by 12 feet and a load limit of three tons. Tenders are required by October 10.

Apples Support This Home

Shown above is the attractive home of the Kiwanis Children's Aid Society, at 1291 street and 103 avenue, where 55 children are fed, housed and provided with home care, including recreation and spiritual education. The Kiwanis club on Saturday is staging its annual Apple Day, selling rosy Mackintosh Reds from the Okanagan Valley, to raise $4,000 for the support of the home.

Plum And Apple Jam Is No

"Bully Beef" Also Goes by the Boards

Longer Standard Army Fare

LONDON, Sept. 28.—Great Britain's 1939 army will enjoy menus at which the average city worker wouldn't turn up his nose. Present day army fare includes meat, vegetables, bacon and cheese, and a weekly issue of cigarettes and tobacco.

That's better than the "bully beef" which Tommy Atkins ate three times a day in the last war. And instead of the inevitable jam and apple pie he will have a choice of crab, kidney, and other delicacies.

Responding to complaints that its wartime programs were dull, the British Broadcasting Corporation said it would turn up a new broadcast next month, featuring a number of preview features and introducing a show called "On the Home Front."

Londoners will be staggered tonight when the British Broadcasting Corporation's "On the Home Front" program is staged tonight when the British Broadcasting Corporation's "On the Home Front" program is staged tonight when the British Broadcasting Corporation's "On the Home Front" program is staged tonight.

Down at Gillingham, Kent, a "companionship club" has been formed for men lonely because their wives and children have been evacuated to the country. Women are welcome, too.

Labels which have demoted windshields of cars since the war began are going to disappear. Local authorities urged their removal. Every other car has a sticker "A.R.P." or "Road-Urgent" or "Auxiliary Fire Service." One woman driver retired by labelling her car "Just Me."

Londoners now are accustomed to long waits for buses and finding them full when they do arrive. The London Transport announced this due to rationing of gas and oil it is compelled to reduce services.

Women eventually will replace men as conductors on public conveyances as during the last war London Transport has registered 2,500 women to take over when the available men are called to the colors.

The war budget has given owners of automatic cigarette vending machines a French headache. When the tobacco tax was increased last March the machines had to be adjusted. They will have to be adjusted again now to meet the new budget.

Looking Them Over

Wichita Here

Troops Need Help

Let's Give It!

CHAMPIONS whipping over the southern Alberta plains chased the Wichita Thunder into Edmonton yesterday afternoon, a day ahead of schedule. The invading champions planned to stop over in Calgary for an exhibition game and then head south for the remainder of the season. Last night the Thunder held a private workout at the arena. Tonight they will run through another workout at the same time as the Grads—8:30 p.m. Saturday night at 8:30 p.m. these two top-ranking teams in the world of women's basketball will open a best of five series for the Vancouver international championship trophy. The second game will be Monday and the third on Wednesday.

The Grads will be in their peak despite the fact that they may be the final series of their illustrious career. Coach Percy Page has never turned out a more deeply serious Grads machine than the present model. The team is in excellent condition. The Grads have been in the Grads for 20 years and now they are in the Grads for the first time in the Grads. The Grads have been in the Grads for 20 years and now they are in the Grads for the first time in the Grads.

The plan presents a number of difficulties. The Grads coach pointed out. "Chief of them is the problem of getting the girls off from their work for the week which such a series would involve. Another major problem would be moving our floor to Calgary. It would fill a freight car. The third point is the question of how Edmonton fans would respond to us taking such a series to Calgary."

The Troops Need Your Help

HUNTER & COMPANY, Ltd. are now offering 10-40 shells for the boys who have enlisted in the various army units now stationed here. There are a flock of first rate athletes in khaki up at the armories, but they haven't got any equipment. The army does not undertake to provide the boys with sport equipment and it is just not possible for the troops to buy equipment out of the pay they have left when their dependents are taken care of.

Will the Edmonton rally around and donate the troops any sports equipment they may have on hand that they can spare? Anything in the way of sport stuff will be mighty welcome—basketballs, table tennis equipment, badminton, tennis, boxing gloves, soccer balls, football equipment, hockey, tennis shoes, shorts, sweaters, knee pads—anything at all.

The boys are just being lined up now in the garages. The boys are just being lined up now in the garages. The boys are just being lined up now in the garages. The boys are just being lined up now in the garages. The boys are just being lined up now in the garages.

Life in barracks is made a lot more pleasant when the troops can lounge in and watch some sport. The boys are cheering on you and saving them down. In the event that you have no sport stuff on hand, you can get a cash donation toward the purchase of equipment. Will help a lot. Don't forget to get your share of equipment. The most direct way of helping the boys is to donate some of your own. Amateurs, or may be get at the Edmonton Bulletin.

How about it, gentlemen, do we do our bit?

Three Wichita Stars

The charming scenery above is composed of three stars of the Wichita Thunder, top-ranking U.S. team which opens a best of five series against the Grads here Saturday at 8:30 p.m. Left to right the girls are: Hazel McCann, center; Helen Peterson, guard; and Alpha Shook, another guard. The Thunder arrived in Edmonton yesterday. They will not play at the arena tonight at the same time as the Grads hold their final drill.

Yankees Boast Of Having Best All-Round Outfield

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—It is customary, when giving a "passing thought to the Yankees' outfield, to gasp "Joe Dinning" with proper awe and assume the whole case closed.

Joe Dinning is something out of the ordinary, rare enough, but so the edge of the world champions will have on the Cleveland Red outfield in the world series next week seems fairly as much from George (Twinkles) Sellick and Charles Keller as from Dinning.

AND NO WEAKNESS

The truth is Manager Joe McCarthy has the best balanced freewheeling outfield posted in the business. It is the only all-around hitting array and the only one that stacks up without a serious defensive weakness.

The fabulous Dinning currently is hitting .384 and as an all-around fielder he is the only one in the game who can handle the outfield without a serious defensive weakness.

Sellick, Cleveland veteran of five campaigns with the champions, is hitting .384 and as an all-around fielder he is the only one in the game who can handle the outfield without a serious defensive weakness.

Keller, Cleveland veteran of five campaigns with the champions, is hitting .384 and as an all-around fielder he is the only one in the game who can handle the outfield without a serious defensive weakness.

PIE TRAYNOR RESIGNS POST BOSSING BLUES

Traynor Has Blues When Club Folds Up; Frank Frisch Likely Boss

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 28.—(AP)—Pie Traynor, one of baseball's great third basemen and manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates of the National Baseball League for five years, resigned as the sixth-place Pirates neared the end of their poorest season since 1917.

FRISCH MENTIONED

The club announced a successor had not been named. Reports said, Frankie Frisch, former manager of St. Louis Cardinals, would step into Traynor's shoes.

The 35-year-old Traynor, who has been with the Pirates as player and manager since 1925, will play with the club, probably as an assistant to the new manager.

Traynor, whose team cracked up last year with the league within a grasp, said he was quitting because of the club's low position and added:

"I believe that a change in management would be the best thing for the club and give the fans of the Pittsburgh district a better brand of baseball."

Traynor's term finished Friday in 1924, fourth in 1925 and 1926 and third in 1927 and 1928.

Louisville Leads In Junior World Series by Two Games

ROCHESTER, N.Y., Sept. 28.—Louisville Cardinals took a 2-0 lead in games over Rochester Red Wings in the Junior World Series by out-pointing the International Baseball League standard batters 3-1 before a crowd of some 100 last night.

The Cardinals, handicapped for eight innings by St. John's best pitcher, broke loose in the ninth and pushed three runs across to win the game. Until the ninth Johnson had yielded only one hit.

Wesley Shaffer and Lewis Johnson and Earl.

REGINA TO RELY ON HOMEBREWS AGAINST ESKIMOS

Only Four Imports Left On 'Rider Roster

REGINA, Sept. 20.—The closest thing to a homebrew football team the Western Conference has seen will take the field here Saturday when Regina Roughriders entertain Edmonton Eskimos. Shorn of Danaher, Scholl and Krienke this week, Riders will fill the gaps with hometown talent. No fewer than eight ex-junior Dales will be in the lineup and only four former American players will see action—Griffing, Edberg, Lander and Cleveland. The other import, Bob Walker, is out with a leg injury.

Plugging duties formerly carried by Danaher will be shared by Eddie Geddes, a junior, and Bert Nelson, an old Roughrider stand-by. Scholl's place at blocking back will be filled by Lindsay Hall or St. Simonson, another pair of juniors, while veteran Harman like Jack Thompson and Frank Stein will fill Krienke's shoes.

Despite the weakened team, Regina is confident of victory over Eskimos. The team has been working out with enthusiasm since the executive laid down the law and Coach Leo Schweinfurt promises "a fighting team."

BOMBERS WARY OF REVAMPED BRONK SQUAD

Calgary Team will be at Full Strength on Saturday

WINNIPEG, Sept. 20.—Winning Blue Bombers, except for quarterback Art Stevenson, are ready for a classic of the western conference season, when they meet Calgary Bronks here Saturday.

In their last meeting here September 13 Bombers won 18-14 because Greg Kubat kicked a last-minute field goal. Bombs featured the upset Regina Roughriders 24-6 at Calgary last Friday and are dangerous challengers in Winnipeg's unbeaten record.

Bombers will be without Stevenson who aggravated a five-week foot injury. Herb Paevel, Bud Marquardt, Mel Wilson and Martin Gaimor, recent casualties, are ready for action.

CALGARY, Sept. 20.—Calgary Bronks 24 players determined to end Winnipeg Blue Bombers' first setback in the western conference schedule, last night headed for the Manitoba capital.

Coach Don Haughian, optimistic over his second-place Bronks chances, announced that Joe Turner, elusive Calgary halfback who supposedly had left earlier in the week to resume studies at Queen's university, will play his last game with the team Saturday. And the late Calgary is one of the best ball teams on the club.

Haughian also reported his Bronks who trimmed Regina Roughriders here last weekend 24-6 while using six injured players, will be at full strength. Jack Lawrence, guard, will see action despite rib injuries suffered in the last Bombers-Bronks encounter.

Adanacs Win Inter-city Title

VANCOUVER, Sept. 20.—New Westminster Adanacs won the 1930 inter-city basketball title here last night when they swamped Vancouver Burrards 20-4 in the seventh game of a best-of-seven series.

Adanacs now meet Nelson Maple Leafs, Kootenay champions, in the first game of a best-of-three series for the British Columbia title at Victoria Saturday night. The winners enter the dominion final for the Mann cup.

Adanacs held Vancouver scoreless in the first half while they piled up 11 points-six in the first frame and five in the second.
